In an interview with I. A. Feibel a few days ago, he told us that people didn't go to Cincinnati and buy goods as much now as heretofore, as they can find everything here they want and for less money. They should patronize home, for we have to pay taxes and keep up schoolhouses, churches, etc., and they go to Cincinnati and give their money to strangers that have no interest in the country, and positively have to pay more money than they do by purchasing the same goods right at home.

We have just received the largest and best selected stock of watches, clocks and jewelry ever brought to Hillsboro, which we can sell at lower prices than ever offered before. Any one wanting anything in our line will do well to call and see our goods and get our prices before calling elsewhere. JACOB SAYLER & SON,

The Scott Dragon picnic announced for last Thursday was not as well attended as it should have been. The boys did not make a hundred thousand to reit their army. However, they more than cleared expenses. The Lynchburg base-ball game which was to have played a match game with a picked Hillsboro nine failed to put in an appearance. The Gilling gun contributed its share of amusement to the occasion. The most rapid volley fired was forty shots in six seconds, or at the rate of four hundred shots per minute. After the artillery display the company adjourned to the floral hall, where the remainder of the day was devoted to music and dancing. Although not a big occasion, it was a very enjoyable one to those present. The ball given the same evening at City Hall was pleasant, but not sufficiently attractive to please the Dragons.

During the storm last Sunday morning about a mile this side of Samantha the lightning struck a telephone pole, and running along the wire for fully a quarter of a mile, completely demolished nine poles. OAK RIDGE, O., Sept. 20.

Thursday, the 16th inst., being Mrs. Perrin's twenty-sixth birthday, her many friends gave her a surprise. She had often said that she couldn't be surprised, but she hadn't the most distant idea of any thing of the kind until the company came in with baskets well filled. The gifts were numerous and handsome, among them being a woollen dress pattern from Mrs. M. Smith, Mrs. P.'s mother. These presents were mostly relatives and neighbors. Esq. West and granddaughter, Miss Clara Cruik, Mr. Prier and wife, from near Samantha, being among the number. Mrs. Perrin took it as calm as if she herself had invited the guests, putting on the dinner she had prepared for herself and husband. A very enjoyable time was had, and all departed wishing her a long life and many more birthday dinners.

Cheap Excursion via the C., W. & B. R. R.

Saturday, September 25th, is the day on which the hospitable drummer of Ohio and neighboring States will entertain his merchant friends and their families at the Exposition and other attractive places in Cincinnati. To "do the hospitable" and to entertain is as natural to a good drummer as it is to breathe. He enjoys it and he knows how to make his guest enjoy it. So those who accept this general invitation (and all are invited) may expect to have a particularly good time.

Excursion tickets from Hillsboro to Cincinnati and return, will be sold on the 25th, and the tickets will be good returning until Monday, 27th, the round trip rate from Hillsboro being but $1.50, which includes an admission ticket to the Exposition. Thus the cheap rate and the long limit will enable the excursionist to spend Saturday, Sunday and Monday in Cincinnati, and give him plenty of time to visit the Exposition several times, see the sights about town, take in the Hill-top resorts, Zoological Garden, Coney Island, etc., and still have ample opportunity to examine the market and buy his goods.

On the 25th a special train will leave Cincinnati at 11 p. m. standard time, which will connect at Blanchester with a special train for Hillsboro and intermediate stations.

Reduced excursion rates will be made from all points on Hillsboro Division.

The Hillsboro Female Schools.

Both the Hillsboro Female College and the Highland Institute opened this fall with brighter prospects than for several years past. The citizens of Hillsboro will be glad to see the schools, which have in years past been such bright ornaments to the town, once more gathering headway and beginning to climb the ladder of prosperity.

The fall term of the Highland Institute, as previously announced in this paper, began on Wednesday, September 15, with flattering prospects. The faculty of the Institute consists of Eleanor P. Allen, Principal; Miss E. L. Grand-Girard, Miss Nellie VanDyke, M'le Helene Meyer. Music—Prof. Victor Nulle, instrumental; Miss Nettie VanDyke, vocal and instrumental. Art—Mrs. Dean K. Fenner. It is also the hope of the principal to secure the services of Miss Bertha Lane, of Norwood, as special instructor in elocution.

President Helt, of the College, owing to the lateness of the day at which he received his appointment, has not fully completed his faculty for the ensuing year. The College, however, opened on Tuesday, September 14, with a bright outlook for the future. The faculty as it stands now consists of Rev. W. C. Helt, President; Mrs. Anna E. Helt, Miss Matie Mather, Miss Columbia Wolfe, Miss Nellie F. Helt. This list will be increased soon by a number of experienced teachers.

CHILICOTHE CONVENTION.

The Handsome Highlander Happy.

Hon. Jacob J. Pugsley Nominated on the 224th Ballot.

The Nomination Promptly Made Unanimous.

"ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL."

The Republican Congressional Convention for the Twelfth District met at the Rink at Chillicothe Tuesday, Sept. 14th. The convention was called to order about 10 a. m. by Marcus Boggs, Chairman of the Ross County Executive Committee. Mr. John S. Atwood, a colored delegate of Brown, was elected Temporary Chairman, and Mr. Fay Baldwin, of Highland, Temporary Secretary. The usual committees being appointed, the convention adjourned until 1:30 p. m.

The convention assembled promptly at 1:30. The Committee on Permanent Organization reported: For Permanent Chairman, W. H. Wiggins, of Ross; for Permanent Secretary, J. W. Quinby, of Clinton.

Chairman Wiggins made an appropriate speech upon taking the chair, at the conclusion of which the roll of counties was called for the announcement of candidates. Col. Robt. Doan was announced by James Walker, of Clinton; Hon. Madison Pavey by Willis Pine, of Fayette; Hon. Jacob J. Pugsley by D. M. Barrett, of Highland; Gen. Samuel H. Hurst by George B. Bitzer, and Col. John C. Entekin by J. C. Douglas, of Ross.

The speeches of the members presenting their candidates were all good, and were received with hearty applause by the friends of the respective candidates.

The unusually large amount of good material before the convention and the tenacity with which the members promised to stick to their man indicated warm and enthusiastic work.

The number of delegates from each of the counties was as follows: Brown 18, Clinton 24, Fayette 20, Highland 24, Pike 11, Ross 31, making 128 votes in the convention, and requiring 65 to nominate.

The first ballot was as follows:

COUNTIES.

Brown.....18.....24

Clinton.....24.....24

Fayette.....20.....24

Highland.....24.....24

Pike.....11.....8

Ross.....31.....15

Total.....2730152325

The balloting continued the whole day and evening, with no important variation excepting occasional complimentary votes to the different candidates.

Wednesday morning brought no important change in the balloting. The monotony continued until after the 112th ballot, when Col. Entekin withdrew in favor of Pugsley. This created a little ripple of excitement. After the 122d ballot it was moved by J. C. Douglas to drop the candidate having the lowest number of votes. The motion was defeated. The convention adjourned after the 177th ballot evening.

After supper the balloting was renewed, and continued with various results, but no nomination until the climax was reached about nine o'clock on the 224th ballot, which stood as follows: Clinton, 24 for Doan; Fayette, 20 for Doan; Pike, 4 for Doan, 4 for Hurst, 3 for Pugsley; Ross, 13 for Hurst, 13 for Pugsley, 5 for Pavey; Brown, 18 for Doan. This gave 68 votes to Doan, which would nominate him. But before the ballot was announced, Fayette changed her vote of 20 to Pavey. Brown promptly changed her 18 votes to Pugsley. Clinton followed with her 24, which boomed Pugsley to 82. Before the ballot was announced, Col. Yeoman, of Fayette, moved the nomination be made unanimous. The motion was carried with wild applause.

Pugsley was called for, and made one of his timely speeches. Each of the other candidates followed, expressing themselves satisfied with the result of the convention, and pledging themselves to the support of the ticket. Everybody seemed well pleased, and the convention adjourned with expressions of confidence in their ability to elect the entire ticket in November.

Republican Convention.

The Republican Convention, called to select county executive and central committee, met at the Court House last Saturday at 2 p. m., H. A. Pavey in the chair. A. Harman was selected as Secretary, after which the purpose of the convention was stated.

On motion of H. D. Waddell that the chair appoint a committee of five to select a county executive committee, including chairman and Secretary, the following gentlemen were named by the chair: J. J. Pugsley, H. M. Huggins, Geo. W. Lefevre, R. Duckwall and Dr. Beeson.

In the course of a few minutes the committee reported the selection of the following executive committee: H. D. Waddell, Chairman; E. W. Fenton, Secretary; C. M. Overman, W. G. Richards, E. Carson, J. B. Rowe. The report was approved.

It was then determined, on motion, that the executive committee, after consultation with the Republicans of the different voting precincts, select a county central committee consisting of one member from each precinct.

The convention then adjourned.

JAMES RECK, Hillsboro, O.

Obituary.

At Marshall, O., Tuesday evening, Sept. 14th, 1886, in the 74 year of her age, Mrs. Sarah Adair Dick passed peacefully and quietly into the rest prepared for the people of God.

Mrs. Dick was the widow of the late Campbell Dick, whose name is held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends. Her parents were among the early settlers upon Paint Creek, and were numbered with the organizing members of the Rocky Spring Presbyterian Church. Very early in life, under the ministry of Dyer Durgum, Mrs. Dick united with that church, and from that day until the day of her death, she maintained a steady, progressive Christian life.

In 1845 she was married to Campbell Dick, and at that time moved to the Dick homestead, where she lived all her remaining days. Mrs. Dick was the mother of Thos. E. Dick, who lives near Marshall, and was esteemed and loved as mother, by Quinston Dick and Emily J. Williams, whose mother died when they were quite small.

For many years she had been greatly afflicted. At times she suffered intensely. But pain and bodily affliction never covered the beauty of that pure life, whose secret fountain was hid in Christ. Her natural abilities were of a high order. Her power of discrimination enabled her to know and appreciate good literature. But it is not so much the culture of the mind as the culture of the heart, for which she will be held in lasting remembrance. It is because she loved much, that she was much loved by every one who knew her. Quiet, unobtrusive, still, serene, attractive, and winsome. Never boastful, but by a beautiful consistency, became a living witness for true culture and Christian character. Truly a good woman has passed away. Good friends and kindred will be sorely missed. Not dead, for through Christ she is in the bosom of the righteous, the home of the faithful. Not dead, for through Christ she is in the bosom of the righteous, the home of the faithful. Not dead, for through Christ she is in the bosom of the righteous, the home of the faithful.

"If it's duty done, as sinks the day,
Light from its load the spirit flies,
While heaven and earth combine to say,
How blest the righteous when they die."

Mrs. John Brown.

Brother Brown was born in Carrikerburg, County Antrim, Ireland, July 8th, 1821, and departed this life Sept. 10th, 1886, at one and a half o'clock, being in the sixty-fifth year of his age.

Brother Brown's parents moved to this country when he was about three years old, and settled at Point Pleasant, Clermont county, Ohio. His parents were John and Sarah Brown. He was married to Elizabeth Duval, daughter of Judge John Duval, in the year 1846. He leaves an affectionate wife who has watched over him during his illness, and a faithful companion could do to alleviate his wants and sufferings, and also two sons, Drs. Henry and Allen, and two daughters, Mrs. George B. Bitzer, and Col. John C. Entekin by J. C. Douglas, of Ross.

Brother Brown had been a member of the Presbyterian Church since early childhood, and exhibited the Christian spirit by his daily walk and conversation. Politically he was a staunch Republican, always living up to the principles advocated by the Republican party. His funeral was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Brown, on Tuesday, Sept. 14th, at two o'clock, at the M. E. Church, by Rev. J. W. Baker, of Cedarville, O., taking the 18th verse of the 14th chapter and the 13th verse of the 15th chapter of the Bible. The remains were laid to rest in the Buford cemetery, to await the resurrection morn.
